What is a typical day in your life like?

What part of that would your dog share?

Do you have a fenced yard?

Will someone be home with the puppy during the day? If not, how do you plan on dealing with housebreaking, etc?

How much time do you have available for a young dog?

Do you realize that adding a puppy to the family is like adding a human baby? Tell me how you will deal with this.

Describe your home setting and the space available for the dog.

Where will the puppy stay during the day?

Where will it sleep at night?

Do all the members of the family REALLY want a dog that will be a part of the family for the next 12-15 years?

Comments:

Thank you for taking the time to answer these questions carefully. My goal is to breed puppies who are healthy, who have wonderful outgoing temperaments, and who are true to the breed standards.

I take great care in choosing my breeding. I am just as careful in placing my puppies with prospective families! Your answers to these questions will help me advise you on the puppy best suited for you and your family.

Thank you for your interest in Fischer's Lil' Pups. I look forward to meeting you in the near future!
